No protected areas for cetaceans are identified in Lithuania.

Please indicate where GIS data of the boundaries (and zoning, if applicable) can be obtained (contact email / website).

B. SURVEYS AND RESEARCH

4.1 Overview of Research on Abundance, Distribution and Population Structure

Please provide an brief summary of (and reference to) any national work.

The LIFE project “Marine Protected Areas in the Eastern Baltic Sea” (LIFE05 NAT/LV/000100) is implemented in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania in 2005-2009 (www.balticseaportal.net). One of the goal of this project – to inventory the marine mammals.

For detecting Harbour porpoise and measuring its activity passive submerged porpoise detectors (T-PODs) was used. The project inventory covered the whole length of the Eastern Baltic Sea coast from Lithuania to the Gulf of Finland. Arrays of T-PODs was deployed in pre-selected places (6 T-PODs in each Baltic country). In 2007 and 2008 different pre-selected areas was used, so different project areas was covered. These detectors were physically placed in the sea and every three months the data from T-PODs were downloaded and batteries exchanged.

The T-PODs for harbour porpoise detection have been purchased and programmed, later on deployed to first survey site for survey. So far, within the year 2007/2009, no harbour porpoises were detected near deployment locations.

4.2 New Technological Developments

Please provide a brief summary of any relevant information

None.

D. LEGISLATION

6.1 Relevant New Legislation, Regulations and Guidelines

Please provide any relevant information.

In 2009 started national new project “Preparation of Protection Actions Plans for Rare Species and Populations Regulations Actions Plans for Invasive Species” in which is including the species harbour porpoise. There is preparing a plan for this species focusing to ASCOBANS implementation. The Institute of Ecology is working on this.

E. INFORMATION AND EDUCATION

7.1 Public Awareness and Education

Please report on any public awareness and education activities to implement or promote the Agreement to the general public and to fishermen.

The lectures for schoolchildren and students on protection of marine ecosystems including small cetaceans as well as local harbor porpoises are permanently organized in the Lithuanian Sea Museum display.

Lithuanian Sea Museum celebrated International Harbor Porpoise Day in 2009 too.

A life-size model of harbour porpoise have been exhibited at the aquarium hall of the Lithuanian Sea Museum.
